

John 6: 1-13

Topic:

a) Jesus tested Phillip. What is a test?

a) (Give kids a Bible test)

- How many of you passed the test?
- This is not the kind of test we're talking about.
- It's not a "See if you get the right answer" kind of test
- It's a "Trust in God, obey Him, watch what He does and your faith will get stronger" kind of test.
- It's not a test to see what we will do. It's so we can see what God will do.

a) Genesis 22: 1-14...Abraham tested.

- Abraham believed, trusted and obeyed God.
- When Abraham walked back down that hill, do you think he was closer to God or farther away?
- Do you think his faith was stronger or weaker?

a) Exodus 16: 15-20...God told the people to gather only enough for one day to test the people.

- Those who believed that God would send more got fresh manna.
- Those who didn't believe and obey got worms.

a) When Phillip saw what Jesus did...Do you think he believed?

Topic:

b) Why do testings come?

b) Gold when it comes out of the ground looks like a clump of dirt. When it is put in the fire, all the yucky stuff burns off and you have a pure piece of gold. It's called testing the gold.

b) When something happens that makes us sad or scared ...we are being tested. We trust God and see what He does.

b) Daniel 3: 15-30...three boys in the fire furnace.

- Was this a pleasant thing? Was it a test?
- When they got out was their faith even stronger?
- Were they closer to God?

b) Job...went through severe testing.

- Job 42: 5 "I have heard of You by the hearing of the ear, But now my eye sees You."
- What did the testing do for Job? Take him farther away from God or bring him closer? When something happens in your life that you don't like...will it bring you closer to God or farther away?

b) Sarah and Amy were best friends. They were better than best friends, they were best bestest friends. They lived next door to each other. They rode the bus and sat together every day. They were in the same classes. They ate lunch together every day. After school they would do their homework together then they would play together till dark. On weekends Sarah would spend the night at Amy's and the next weekend Amy would spend the night at Sarah's. Actually they were more like sisters than just friends. Then one day something happened that made Sarah feel very, very sad. Amy told Sarah that her dad had gotten a job in a different state and they were moving. Once Amy moved, the girls would probably never see each other again. Both Sarah and Amy sat on Sarah's porch steps.

They didn't talk, they just sat there sadly. Then the day came. A moving van pulled up to Amy's house and loaded all their furniture. Then Amy's family and Sarah's family stood on the front lawn and said goodbye. Sarah and Amy hugged each other. They were both crying. As the car pulled away, Sarah waved goodbye to Amy who was waving from the back window of her car. When the car disappeared, Sarah just stood there on the sidewalk staring. Her best friend was gone. She walked into her house, went up to her room and lay on her bed. She had never felt this sad before. Then she prayed. She told Jesus how she was feeling. She prayed that He would watch over her friend. After she prayed she felt a little better. As the days went on Sarah still missed Amy. Every night she prayed that the Lord would give her a new best friend. A few weeks later a moving van pulled up in front of Amy's old house. Then a car pulled into the driveway. A family got out of the car. Last to get out was a girl about Sarah's age. The girl looked over at Sarah, waved and smiled.

- Did Sarah get tested?
- Did it bring her closer to the Lord or farther away?
- When something happens that you don't like...Will it bring you closer to God or further away?

a) Once there was a car named Norman who had to drive to New York City. It was really far away. The car pulled out of its driveway and headed for New York. On the corner there was a gas station. Norman zoomed right by it. On the expressway there were a lot of cars going very fast. Norman stepped on the gas and made himself go really fast in order to keep up with the other cars. There were a few gas stations off the expressway but Norman zoomed right past because he didn't want to get behind the other cars. Once off the expressway he headed for New York. He passed four gas stations but didn't stop because he was in a hurry to get to where he wanted to go. Then as he was turning a corner, Norman began to slow down. His engine started to sputter and he stopped right in the middle of the street. Try as he might, he couldn't get himself started again and had to stay in the middle of the road with all the other cars honking at him.

- Why do you think Norman stopped moving?
- What should he have done and why?

a) Once there was a boy named Isaac. Isaac's alarm clock went off one morning to wake him up for school. He reached over, turned it off and went back to sleep. By the time he woke up he could hear the school bus honking its horn outside. He tried to get dressed as fast as he could but by the time he ran outside the bus was gone. Now his mom had to give him a ride to school. She was in a hurry, they jumped into the car and took off. Once in school he had to run down the hall to get to class. It was then that he realized he forgot his homework. Not only had he forgotten his homework but he forgot his whole knapsack which had all his books in it and his gym stuff. His teachers were not very happy. His whole day went like that. In art class he spilled paint all over his picture. He couldn't wait for lunch but then remembered that he had left his lunch at home. By the time he got home that night he was exhausted. He fell on the couch and wondered why the day had been so confusing and hard. He felt like he had run out of gas.

b) Betsy's family has moved. She had to leave her old house and move into a new one that was far away. She had to leave her old friends and her old school. Now she had to go to a new school where she didn't know anyone. The first day she waited for the bus, when she got on, all the kids stared at her. She sat in a seat all alone and rode to school. When she got to school she saw how big it was. This school was way bigger than her old school and she had never seen so many people in one place before. Everyone there seemed to know where they were going. She saw lots of kids walk by laughing with their friends. Betsy didn't even know where her classroom was and she didn't know anyone in the school. How do you think she felt?

- What should she do?
- Do you think she'll eventually make new friends? Will Jesus take care of her?

Topic:

c) Mark 5: 2-6....Jesus and His friends meet a very scary man

- What do you think Jesus' friends did when they saw this man running at them?
- Do you think Jesus ran away?
- Why did the evil that was in this man bow down to Jesus? (It had to. Jesus is more powerful than any scary, evil thing. Evil is afraid of Jesus.

c) Mark 4: 35-41...Even the scary storms obey Him

c) William was in his bed. It was night and it was dark and quiet. All of sudden it started to rain. Then it rained harder. Soon it was thundering and lightening. Then it started thundering so loud that the windows in Roberts bedroom started shaking. Robert was scared. He pulled the blankets up over his head and prayed, "Jesus please make this storm go away!" The storm didn't go away. It got louder. William wondered why Jesus didn't make the storm go away like he wanted. He prayed again..."Lord if this storm isn't going away please take care of me and watch over me." Then he remembered what Jesus said, "I will never leave you or forsake you." When he thought about this he felt better. William lay there in his bed and listened to the thunder and rain. He watched the lightning flash and knew that Jesus was watching over him. Soon the storm was over. William pulled his blankets tight around him and went to sleep...braver and stronger.

- Why did William end up stronger and braver? (Because he trusted in Jesus even when the storm didn't go away.)

c) Once there was a mouse whose name was Mouse. Mouse had a best friend, an elephant named Tiny. Tiny wasn't really tiny, in fact he was huge and strong, everyone just called him Tiny. Mouse and Tiny liked to go for walks together. One day they were walking down the street when Mouse saw a hungry cat named Eater coming towards them. They called the cat Eater because he loved to eat. He especially loved to eat mice. As soon as Mouse saw Eater he became scared. Every step he took he got more and more scared. Sometimes when little brother asks big brother to play with him or if big brother is going somewhere and little brother asks if he can go with him...big brother yells at little brother and tells him to get lost. This makes little brother very sad because he loves his big brother and can't understand why big brother doesn't want him around. Is big brother doing what God wants him to do? One day big brother was working on something and little brother came up and asked if he could help. Big brother told him to get lost. Then big brother noticed the sad look on little brother's face as he walked away. Big brother felt bad that he had hurt his little brother. They went into the woods and started picking flowers. They went wading in a creek. They tried to catch pollywogs with their hands. The girls were having a great time as they were going farther and farther into the woods. Suddenly they realized something. They were far away from the picnic and didn’t know how to get back. They tried walking back the way they came but got even more lost. Plus it was getting dark! Plus they were walking into branches and falling down! Plus one of the girls accidentally stepped on a dead squirrel. They were tired, dirty and scared. They called out to their moms and dads but nobody heard them. Sue finally said, “We need to pray!” The girls stopped, held hands and asked Jesus to help them get out of the woods. As soon as they were done praying they heard voices yelling. One day the dragon sent a message to a town that said, “Tomorrow I am going to come to your town and eat you all for breakfast with my very large and sharp teeth.” The people in the town were all scared. That night the town dentist did something very brave. He snuck into the dragon’s cave, pulled all his teeth out, locked him in a cage, took him away and sold him to a circus where he now sits in

- Why doesn't God get rid of you?
- What did Jeremy hope would happen to the dog?
- Did Jeremy love the dog because the dog was good?
- Why did he love him? (Because Jeremy was good.)
- Does God love you because you're always good or because God is good and kind?
- God is love.

Topic: b) What does God want you to do? (Live!)

b) It was dodge ball day in gym class. The kids who liked to play dodge ball were all excited. The kids who hated dodge ball were dreading it. Jacob was one of the kids who hated dodge ball. The game started. One of the boys who could throw the ball really hard saw Jacob standing in the corner hoping that no one would throw the ball at him. This boy drew his arm aback and threw the ball as hard as he could. He threw it so hard that it knocked Jacobs head off. The coach put Jacobs head in a plastic bag and an ambulance took him to the hospital. A team of doctors operated on Jacob for ten hours. Finally they got the head back on and Jacob was able to go back to school.

- Why did the doctors do what they did? (They wanted Jacob to live)

b) Luke 7:37-38... Why didn't Jesus throw the weeping woman out?

b) Luke 23: 39-43... Why would Jesus forgive this man who had done so many bad things and tell him that he would be in heaven with Him that day?

b) John 8: 4-11... This woman was guilty. Why didn't Jesus say "Stone her."

b) Why would Jesus leave heaven, become a person and die on a cross? (He wants you to live.)

b) Matthew 27: 39-42..."Come down from the cross!"

- Could He have come down if He wanted to?
- Why did He stay on the cross? (He was thinking of you.)

John 6: 41-59

Topic: a) Where was Jesus before He was born?

a) Where were you before you were formed inside your mother? (You were no where. You didn't exist)

a) Where was Jesus before He was born? (In Heaven in the form of God)

a) Genesis chapter one....Who said, "Let there be light." ?

a) Pretend you are in heaven. You have your new body, you're flying around in outer space doing all these cool fun things and you have forever to look forward to and every day is better than the one before. God comes up to you and says that He has a job for you. Would you do it? So God shows you this planet. The only inhabitants of this planet are vicious pit bulls. They are biting and killing each other. God says that He wants you to go down to that planet and tell those vicious pit bulls that He loves them. Would you do it? Then God tells you that in order to tell the vicious pit bulls that He loves them...you have to become a poodle and when you go down as a poodle and tell the pit bulls that God loves them, they are going to kill you. Will you do it? But God tells you that after they kill you, He will raise you from the dead. Will you do it? Oh, and one more thing. You are going to have to stay a poodle forever. Will you do it? Jesus did and more so.

- Jesus came down from heaven and became a person to show you God's love.

Topic: b) How does His death and resurrection make us alive?

b) There was a huge fence. On this fence was a sign that said, "Do not open this gate! Beware of the vicious wolf!" A boy was walking by the fence and saw the sign. He had always wanted to see a wolf so he tried looking through a hole in the fence. He couldn't see anything, all he could hear was something growling. So the boy opened the gate and went inside the fence. He didn't see anything at first but then he heard something behind him. He turned around and there was the wolf! The wolf lunged forward and bit the boy on the arm. The boy fell down. The wolf was just about to jump on top of him when someone saved him. A man heard the boy screaming. He ran inside the fence and yelled so that wolf would come after him instead of the boy. The wolf left the boy and lunged at the man biting him very hard. The boy jumped up and ran outside the fence.

The man was able to throw off the wolf, run outside the fence and bolt the gate. The boy was very sorry he had ever opened that gate and thanked the man for saving his life.

- Whose fault was all this?
- Did the boys disobedience hurt him?
- How was he saved?
- Does our sin hurt us?
- How are we saved?

b) Once there was a king. This king lived in a castle surrounded by a great wall. The castle was a fun place to live. It had a lot of bedrooms and every bedroom had its own swimming pool. The kings people lived outside the gate. Their houses were very poor, had holes in the walls and no heat. One day the king came outside the gate and made an announcement. He told his people that the next day he was going to open the gates of the castle and anyone who wanted to come and live inside the castle could. They could live there for free and the king would take care of them. The king only had one rule...DO NOT JUMP INTO THE POISONOUS SLIME PIT. Outside the castle walls there was a pit full of poisonous slime. If anyone jumped in it they would get the poisonous slime all over them and die. This poisonous slime was especially bad because the only way you could get it off you was if you put it on someone else and then they would die. So the king reminded the people not to jump into the poisonous slime pit and that tomorrow he would open the gates and let them all in. As soon as the king closed the gate and went back inside the castle, every man woman and child jumped into the poisonous slime pit. When the king came out the next morning to let all the people in, there they were, covered in slime and getting sicker by the minute. The king loved his people and he wanted them to live. The king went from person to person, took all the poisonous slime off them and put it all on his own son. His son died.

- Is sin poisonous?
- Have we all sinned?
- How are we saved?

b) Once there was a birds nest. In this nest there were three baby birds. They had just hatched out of their eggs. They couldn't fly or do anything. They didn't even have feathers yet. As soon as they were born they were hungry. The mother bird flew out and searched for juicy worms. Then she would fly back and put the worms in the mouths of the hungry babies. The father bird would perch on a branch high above. He would look out for any mean birds who might attack the nest. If any did, he would fly down and chase them away.

- How are these baby birds able to live? (Because of their father and mother)
- How are we able to live? (Because Jesus has risen from the dead and given us life.)

b) Once there was a farmer who planted a seed. He dug a hole, put the seed in and covered it with dirt. Under the ground the seed died. But then something wonderful happened. After the seed died little green things started growing out of it. Soon they pushed their way up through the dirt into the sunshine. They grew taller and taller. Before long those little green things grew into a tree. The tree blossomed with beautiful flowers. Soon apples were growing on it. People would come from all over to pick the delicious fruit and eat it.

- Who made that dead seed grow, blossom and produce fruit?
- Who causes us to grow and become more and more like Jesus?
- What is Jesus like?
- Jesus is alive. We need Him for everything. This is why we pray.

Topic: c) How do we feed on Him?

c) There was a baby. This baby couldn't do anything except lay in its carrier, cry, eat, and a couple of other things. The baby's parents worked, fed him, gave him a house to live in and took care of everything the baby needed.

- Can this baby live on its own?
- We can't live on our own either. We need God for everything. This is why we pray.

c) You love your parents but as you get older do you need their help as much? Do you need your parents to change your diapers? Do you need them to still feed you? When you're old enough to get a car will you need them to drive you around anymore?

- As you get older do you need God as much? (You will need Him more)
- As you get older you should become less and less dependent on your parents
- As you get older you should be become more dependent on God.

John 6: 60-71

Topic: a) I don't understand. (Just trust)

a) Do you understand how a pop machine works? Would you put your money into one anyway?

- Can you understand everything about God? (No...He's too big and our brains are too small)
- Do you still believe and trust Him?

a) One day a father and son were walking through the jungle. The son stopped to look at something. When his father looked back at him he saw a huge poisonous snake slowly coming out of a tree directly over his son. The son didn't see it. The dad told his son to stand still. He said, "Son, don't move and when I tell you, I want you to run as fast as you can. Don't ask any questions just do as I say." He then yelled, "Run!!!" The boy ran and was safe.

- Did the boy understand why his dad told him to run?
- Did he trust his dad and obey anyway?
- Sometimes we don't understand the things God says or does. Faith is trusting God and obeying even when we don't understand.

a) Mark 5: 35-36....Jesus brings a dead girl back to life.

- Jairus went to Jesus for help. Jesus said He would heal her.
- Now she's dead.
- Jairus didn't understand.
- "Don't be afraid, just believe."

a) Jamie was getting ready for school. While he was upstairs his mom watched the weather report on TV. The weather guy said that even though it was sunny out now later on it was going to rain really hard. When Jamie came down his mom told him to bring an umbrella to school. Jamie looked outside and saw that the sun was shining. He told his mom that he didn't need an umbrella. She told him to take the umbrella. Jamie started to whine and complain that he didn't need an umbrella because the sun was shining. His mom told him to take the umbrella.

- Should he trust his mom, obey and take the umbrella? Why? (Mom knows more than he does. She watched the weather report and knew it was going to rain.)
- God knows everything. This is why we trust and obey Him even when we don't understand.

Topic: b) Where will we go?

b) Once there were some people wandering through a desert. It was really hot and there was no water to drink. The people were so hot and thirsty that they were about to die. Suddenly they saw something in the distance. It was an oasis. They crawled to it and found a beautiful place. There were palm trees, fruit trees and a waterfall of cool clean water. The man who owned the oasis told the people that could stay as long as they wanted or they could leave and go back to the desert.

- Would you stay or leave? Why?
- Are you going to stay with Jesus? Why?

b) Job....many bad things happened to him. He lost everything that made him happy.

- His wife said to curse God and die.
- Job said he would stay with Jesus during the happy times and the sad times.
- What would you do?
- During what times do we need Jesus the most?

b) Terry was six years old. His uncle had given him a new DS game system with a game to go with it. Terry was on the bus playing his game when a boy named Robert saw the game. Robert sat next to Terry and spoke nicely to him. Robert told Terry that he would trade him five baseball cards for his DS. Terry didn't think this was a good idea. Robert told him that the baseball cards were very valuable and were worth one thousand dollars. Do you believe him? Terry believed Robert and traded his DS for the five baseball cards.

- Is this a fair trade? Would you do it? Why not?
- What would you trade being with Jesus in heaven for?
