The Sermon On The Mount

“Issues of the Heart!” - Part 2

Christ Fulfills the Law

Matthew 22:36-40 (NKJV)

36 “Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?”

37 Jesus said to him, “You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.’ 38 This is the first and great commandment. 39 And the second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ 40 On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.”

Galatians 3:23-25 (NKJV)

23 But before faith came, we were kept under guard by the law, kept for the faith which would afterward be revealed.

24 Therefore the law was our tutor to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith. 25 But after faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor.

Murder in the Heart

Matthew 12:33-35 (NKJV)

33 “Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or else make the tree bad and its fruit bad; for a tree is known by its fruit. 34 Brood of vipers! How can you, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. 35 A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good things, and an evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth evil things.

Murder in the Heart

Matthew

- * Matthew 6:12-15
- * Romans 12:17-19

“Even if the other man were guilty, an attempt had to be made to remove the bitterness. The health of the church should be considered invaluable and every attempt made to preserve it. The Savior seemed to be saying, “What needs to be done, do it immediately. Do not procrastinate; tomorrow may be too late.” A man who delays action may be too late. A small, neglected Wound in the leg might easily fester, and could result in amputation. Jesus was recommending constant watchfulness. Christians should remember that a painful incision is better than a sealed casket.” - Ivor Powell
